The marking system: notes for students

Marks are given as a percentage on the British scale. A table showing commonly-used letter grade equivalents is provided opposite.

Students at the University of Cambridge receive their results as a class-mark, and the relative significance of this is also shown. It is the class-mark which appears on the grade report.

Essays which are incomprehensible, fail to address the question, or employ plagiarism (copying), are marked Fail or Unclassified. Essays from students who fail to meet attendance requirements or submission deadlines, and essays which do not meet the required length may not be accepted, or may have percentage marks deducted.
